first last

Description Want to start a career at Bezeq International? Learn and specialize in the service worlds and technical worlds? Bezeq International is looking for new technical support representatives for technical centers in Petach Tikva and Natanya Your opportunity to enter the technological world! - Comprehensive training and professional accompaniment all the way - Learning a variety of content worlds Communications, information security and more - CCNA certification - at the expense of the company! - Great employment conditions, dining rooms, health insurance, advanced study fund and more - work in a young, dynamic environment with lots of joys, competitions, prizes, vacationers and more. Send us a watzap.

Description Tremor Video DSP is the leading programmatic video platform, matching advertisers with audiences—wherever they may be. Delivering custom video experiences across all screens, we help advertisers tell captivating brand stories to create meaningful, personalized moments with prospective customers.We're looking for a tech savvy individual who is passionate about video and who thrives in a fast-paced, digital advertising environment. The Trafficker will be responsible for the set-up, testing and monitoring of Desktop, Mobile and Connected TV campaigns utilizing Tremor Video's proprietary platform. Partnering closely with Customer Success, Programmatic Traders, Product and Engineering, the ideal candidate will strive to build relationships across teams, ensuring campaign set-up is correct and utilizing problem solving skills to understand how we can continue to execute campaigns that exceed client expectations

Description Altaal specializes in adapting technological and logistical solutions to the defense system. A senior Java programmer is required for a military exercises control system. Full time work in Sderot (work will also be required in the Tze'elim camp). The job includes specification and development of solutions according to customer requirements, introduction of developments and upgrades For the existing system, writing characterization documents, responding to real-time malfunctions and leading testing processes with the customer.  Excellent conditions for suitable people - including vehicles **

Description Altel, which is engaged in adapting technological and logistic solutions to the security market, requires a full-time contact technician at Tze'elim camp and throughout the country. The work includes escort and support in military training. The work includes, among other things: - Transportation of tasks and projects in the field of tactical communications and the Shabak. Maintenance and handling of the communication system.

Description Ness is a global support team leader at Tier1, in the role of professional and personal management of global communications and NOC support personnel, task management, execution of escalations, meeting SLA targets, scheduling, recruiting and training employees, etc. Dynamic and challenging work, multi-interfaces and technologies Full time position in Tel Aviv.

Description The NESS Learning Solutions Division recruits IT systems integrators. The role includes individual one-on-one tutorials on specialized information systems, support for end-users and ongoing support for the system. Willingness to work in a team, dynamic and challenging work environment Full time and temporary six months (with option to extend).

Description Has a technological orientation? We are looking for you! The job includes individual training on the CRM system, support and support for end-users, nationwide, Tel Aviv, Beer-Sheva, Haifa, Nazareth and Jerusalem.

Description Ness Technologies is recruiting a system employee for a large public organization. The job includes maintaining hundreds of servers and applications in a Windows environment, responding to a large development team, monitoring and controlling the site. Working in a dynamic, challenging and technological environment.

Description NESS requires a programmer for a digital development department, including programming in the Net environment. Of the company's sites, the Self Service portals and applications. A dynamic and challenging work environment. Full time, Rosh Ha'ayin.

Description For a technology company in the center of the country, you need a QA / QA tester in a web system Experience of one year or more - Must experience writing STD, STP test papers Starting salary 10K Full time and permanent Description Come to touch the TOP of the equipment and technology in the world of communications and the leading and largest organizations in Israel, and be a technological leader You too deserve to work in a company that knows how to pamper themselves with recognized professional qualifications, vacations in Israel and abroad, extended insurance, cultural basket, Career advancement and professional development for a variety of positions in the communications and information security worlds, and more. The job includes: Providing telephone and troubleshooting solutions to Bezeq's business customers in the IP VPN field.

Description MPrest Systems, which specializes in developing security systems (Iron Dome) and in the field of HLS and IOT, is interested in recruiting an experienced software tester. The role includes integration into a professional and professional software testing team in the security division. in Petach Tikva